JILL GREISING-MURSCHEL

FAMILY TRAVEL BLOGGER

I am a travel blogger who provides inspiration and how-to info to help others who want to travel with their families.

We are a full-time traveling family of 6, RVing the states in our 33-foot class C while world schooling our children.

Many people think they have to wait until they retire and their kids are grown to enjoy traveling, but we're here to show parents that they can do it NOW, even with a large family.

THINGS TO DO IN ARIZONA, USA

March 05, 2018

When I first moved to the states, around five years ago now, I was all about exploring my beautiful new home. With fifty states to explore, I set myself the daunting challenge of visiting all 50 states before I turn 30. Unfortunately, I didn't meet that goal, and you can find out why here. One of the states I did manage to visit though was Arizona. For my sister's 21st birthday, we all took a trip to Las Vegas and squeezed in a trip through Arizona to the Grand Canyon. The Grand Canyon is one of the most incredible places on earth and well worth a visit to the state of Arizona. We however didn't do much else in Arizona due to the short amount of time we had. My friend, Jill, from Let's Travel Family has shared her favorite things to do in Arizona below.

letstravelfamily It was inspiring to be surrounded by the history and the roots of country music 👉 with our kids today! The Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum @officialcmhof provided such an array of possibilities for our family of 6. .

We spent time in the Taylor Swift Education Center watching and listening to Songwriting 101. Then we enjoyed playing a scavenger hunt throughout the museum. Lastly, the kids were thrilled to sing in the recording studio! 🎤 Be sure to check our Instastories for more photos of our day today!

👉 Have you ever been to the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville, TN? Who is your favorite country music star? .

Kickin' it at the Lake Superior Zoo in Duluth, Minnesota! It wasn't huge, but we had a ton of fun! I especially loved the stream that runs through the zoo and allowed our family some hiking time between viewing the animals 🐾
